2. THE COURT FINDS:

- ☐ There is good cause for the order of income withholding not to take effect immediately as follows:
- a. It is in the best interest of the child for immediate income withholding not to take effect for the following stated reasons:

- b. Proof of timely payment of previously ordered support has been provided.
- c. Both the payer and the recipient of support will notify the friend of the court in writing of any change in:
- 1) the name, address, and telephone number of his/her current source of income;
 - 2) any health care coverage that is available to him/her as a benefit of employment or that is maintained by him/her, the name of the insurance company, health care organization, or health maintenance organization; the policy, certificate, or contract number; and the names and birth dates of the persons for whose benefit s/he maintains health care coverage under the policy, certificate, or contract; and
 - 3) his/her current residence and mailing address within 21 days of the change.

- ☐ The parties have entered into a written agreement that has been reviewed and entered in the record as follows:
- a. The order of income withholding shall not take effect immediately.
- b. An alternative payment arrangement has been agreed upon (attached).
- c. Both the payer and the recipient of support will notify the friend of the court in writing of any change in:
- 1) the name, address, and telephone number of his/her current source of income;
 - 2) any health care coverage that is available to him/her as a benefit of employment or that is maintained by him/her, the name of the insurance company, health care organization, or health maintenance organization; the policy, certificate, or contract number; and the names and birth dates of the persons for whose benefit s/he maintains health care coverage under the policy, certificate, or contract; and
 - 3) his/her current residence and mailing address within 21 days of the change.

IT IS ORDERED:

3. Income withholding shall not take effect immediately.
4. Income withholding shall take effect if the fixed amount of arrearage is reached, as specified in law.
